The home has abundant light throughout and enjoys a great aspect with lovely views to the gardens, greenery and beyond.

Throughout the home there are strong elements of design with an art deco bathroom, cathedral ceilings, French doors and lovely veranda and sitting areas. With several entertainment areas there are plenty of outdoor areas to host family bbqs or just enjoy a quiet cuppa and enjoy a good read, while being surrounded with peace and serenity.

The gardens have been beautifully landscaped with pretty cottage gardens, flowering shrubs, along with a market garden and a good selection of fruit trees.

There is amazing storage in this home and good rear access to the back yard. Plenty of room available to bring in a van or boat, or even build a shed. Men will love the workshop area and the kids will love the separate bedroom areas and their own rumpus/play room.

This home will appeal to families and professionals and especially those looking for something a little bit different and unique. The current owners are committed to moving interstate and have priced the home to meet the market.
