Set on a flat, pretty and private acre is this original federation home which was originally known as the "Rous Mill Church Manse". Restored to its former glory, this home is certainly charming inside and out. It has beautiful, polished timber floors throughout, high ceilings, original fretwork and french doors. This home oozes "old worlde" charm. Featuring three bedrooms plus three studies, a large, country style kitchen with walk-in pantry, split system air-conditioning and solar hot water.

There are two spacious family rooms plus enclosed sleep outs and verandahs that make for extra rooms that could be used for studies, craft and art rooms. There is a large, six car garage with an extra shower and toilet, making this an ideal storage/workshop area. This area could easily be converted to a granny flat or parent's accommodation.
