lovely views, a separate dining area with a sliding door leading out to the undercover BBQ area overlooking the fully fenced back yard. The large and original funky kitchen has plenty of cupboard and bench space and is easy access to the outdoor area. The home also has a second toilet adjacent to the bedroom at the rear.

There are three bedrooms of generous size with built-ins and easy access to the good-sized bathroom. Many extra features of this property include a new colourbond roof, air conditioned dining and lounge area, ceiling fans and a rainwater tank for the gardens. The home is close to schools and the Lismore Heights Bowling Club, Lismore Base Hospital and Lismore CBD.

There is ample side access to get to the back yard which is very private and has ample room for the kids and fur babies to play. Downstairs has a lock up garage and storage area.

The current owner is moving towards the coast and is serious about selling. Inspections will impress and those looking for a spotless, clean and well maintained home in a good location that oozes classic style will fall in love with this home.
