fenced, with room for a small family pet and has a single freestanding carport.

The home will appeal to those buyers looking for a smaller easy care home and gardens, yet will love the convenience to local shopping centres, hospitals and the university. Meticulously cared for and there is in no need for renovating or updating, making it very attractive for an astute investor who is looking for a low maintenance property which will show a excellent return for their investment. It is also a great alternative to those that don't want to be in a unit complex and prefer their own freestanding home, at a price that you would normally expect from a unit or duplex this certainly has to be a better choice of living.

This home has been very competitively priced, with the current owner on the move overseas you would be hard pressed in finding a more immaculate compact home in the current market. This one promises not to disappoint. Call Melanie Stewart the exclusive agent on 0421 560 936 to view today!
