wanting to run a business from home. At the end of the cul-desac is a pretty park with a creek, called Bull Winkle Park. This is a top place to walk the dogs, have a picnic or for the kids to play freely.

Immaculately presented featuring 3 big bedrooms, a formal living room with fireplace and mantle, there is also a new modern gourmet kitchen positioned in an open plan living and dining area, making this an excellent place to cook and enjoy the best of family living.

The home includes stunning original features, is fully insulated, with high ceilings, federation arches, timber floors plus classic Bi-fold doors which open out to the verandas. There is a fantastic large covered deck for outside entertaining, whether it's a quiet cuppa, enjoying your favourite novel, or hosting a dinner party for friends. At the rear is a freshwater pool that the kids will love, yet still plenty of yard space for them to play, or to build a shed to store all the boy toys!

Attached to the home, is a large 9ft high, double lock up garage with access to the rear for those shed enthusiasts. The property is framed by a cottage picket fence, landscaped with magnificent gardens and flowering shrubs, winding paved pathways and 'olde' world gardens.

Rarely found are homes of this quality and style on a bigger block of land. This home will truly inspire you, it is impressive inside and out!
