Arguably the most enticing part of this property has been saved until last..... the stunning garden setting and the inevitable abundance of wildlife it invites, including echidnas and birds too numerous to name. A delightful bush, rainforest section at the rear of the property provides a refreshing shaded area and overlooks low maintenance gardens. If you genuinely appreciate nature you will not be disappointed here.

The owner of this immaculately presented home are downsizing so come and take a look and, if it ticks all the boxes, present your offer now or you may miss out. Contact Michelle Sandrk 0481 760 839 to secure your inspection today.
