comfortable.

Downstairs there is a separate room which could be used as an art studio, games or family room and it adjoins a good sized laundry, plus there is undercover car accommodation and ample storage. Along with town water there is a water tank.

The property features a large, easy care yard with well-established gardens of natives and flowering shrubs, which favourably attracts the gorgeous friendly birdlife.

The bus stops at the front door making easy access to everywhere you wish to go. The current owner has found a position in a retirement home and they are looking for a quick and immediate sale to finalise their arrangements, if you are looking for a neat home that is small and cosy with a great position please call Melanie Stewart exclusive agent on 0421 560 936 today!
