space and storage with views over the adjoining horse paddocks and the rural vista.

The wide timber verandahs are prominent across the front and rear of the home and you will just love the fully enclosed entertainment room that is a great place to host bbqs and family dinner parties, right next door to the sparkling pool that the kids will love!

The property has fully fenced paddocks that would ideally suit horses or cattle, plus there are stables and a large separate shed that will provide plenty of space for vehicles and a workshop. If you want to give your family the best and raise them in the country with plenty of room to run free, ride their dirt bikes or raise farm animals then this one is something to get excited about.

Are you looking to immerse yourself in a great community of rural dwellers and be part of nature? Then you should take delight in viewing this property today. There are pockets of trees and rainforest with lovely bird life and native habitat. With chook pens and plenty of space to create market gardens the property is perfect for those looking to be self-sufficient while enjoying all the benefits of a warm and enriching comfortable home.

Alstonville village is just a short drive away as well as the river at Wardell and patches beach.

The current owners are downsizing to the coast and will listen to offers. Call Melanie Stewart on 0421 560 936 and arrange your private viewing.
