modern kitchen and dining space. The kitchen will delight any home chef or entertainer with excellent storage, great appliances and a large walk in pantry. The home is air-conditioned and has ample storage and quality fixtures and fittings throughout.

There is internal access from a large double garage that has extra storage and opens to a spacious laundry. This parcel of land has been landscaped professionally, the gardens planted with easy care natives and shrubs and the occasional fruit tree. This block will certainly appeal to the busy professional who doesn't want to spend all of their weekends on a ride on lawn mower but still wants the feeling of space around them and privacy.

You will appreciate the blend of classic and modern elements in this home, with neutral tones throughout along with French doors and large picture windows that allows abundant light and to enjoy the lovely northern breezes. There are verandas on both sides of the home which are enjoyable places to sit and relax or entertain with friends. There is also room for a pool or a shed.

This property will suit professionals, families or active retirees that are looking for peace and quiet along with a designer home. With easy access to the university, hospital and business centre of Lismore, and 10minutes drive to Alstonville village and 20 minutes to the coast this property is in an ideal location.

The current owners are looking for an immediate sale, inspections will impress with this one! The price is very affordable for this style of quality property so book a time today with exclusive agent Melanie Stewart on 0421 560 936.
