At the front, there is an easy access double carport with plenty of driveway access.

The home is well set back from the road and sits in a private position and enjoys a sunny easterly aspect from the rear. To the rear is an expansive Queensland room which is great for hosting large family gatherings and entertaining with friends. To the north is a lovely side veranda that is also a great place to sit and relax. The property has security screens. The gardens are easy care with established trees and flowering shrubs.

Men will love the big three bay shed at the rear of the property, room to store extra vehicles and boy toys and have a great workshop. There is ease of access to the rear from both sides. Plus, there is a water tank and garden shed. Families will love the big area for the kids to play safely, there is room for a pool, extra studio or unit, more sheds or redevelop this property STCA.

While the home is mostly original it is in good condition but most will want to do some updating and modernizing. The current owners are investors and want to sell to enjoy their retirement. Given these properties with the large blocks are so hard to find please don't delay in viewing this one, with a lack of homes currently on the market this one won't be around for long! Call exclusive sales agent Melanie Stewart on 0421 560 936 to arrange a viewing.
