three bedrooms are all good sizes with built in robes and handy to the main bathroom and toilet. There is a well set out, separate laundry and internal access from the double garage. The lovely big windows throughout this home allow you to see out to the stunning landscape and wonderful array of flowering gardens and trees, making the very best of lifestyle living.

Presenting a classic country style to this home, complete with bull nose verandas across the front and plenty of undercover areas to entertain or relax and take in the glorious, peaceful, rural surroundings, while spotting the odd wallaby and wildlife that this estate is famous for.

This property is minutes from the Village of Alstonville and 15 minutes to Ballina and Lismore. This estate boasts a collection of beautiful homes, all on small acreage lots, and enjoys areas of pretty rainforest pockets. It is popular with professionals and families who like being close to town, yet feel they are part of a rural living environment. The estate is on the local bus run for schools.

Men, you will love the three bay shed away from the house, complete with power, there is plenty of room to store the extra boy toys and have a workshop.

This is rare opportunity to buy a flat acre block with a beautifully designed home. It ticks all the boxes, be quick and view this property as it most certainly won't last long. Call Melanie Stewart on 0421 560 936 to arrange a private viewing today.
