46 O'Flynn Street, Lismore Heights

"Ivy" - Oh What a Cutie!

This cute home is positioned in a great location in Lismore heights, lovingly owned by the same family for many years. This home will appeal to first home buyers, young families, single professionals or the astute investor.

Positioned on the high side of the road in an elevated position to capture the views and the nice breezes this home has been well cared for and maintained. A double storey timber cladded home with two big bedrooms and sunroom that could be easily used as a third bedroom, spacious living and renovated kitchen.

Downstairs there is ample car accommodation, workshop space and storage. You will love the beautiful gardens with established flowering shrubs and trees, and occasional fruit trees. Plenty of room for a market garden and space for the kids to play safely.
