

SOLD BY MELANIE STEWART

This property is situated close to Alstonville's village Centre, a short stroll to the shops, medical centres, cafes, restaurants and schools. The current owner has extensively renovated and modernised this home which is full of abundant light and retains an excellent aspect, often sought after by buyers.

Featuring beautiful timber floors, spacious living room, separate dining, three good sized bedrooms, plus a study or fourth bedroom, modern kitchen with all new appliances and a fantastic north facing front verandah which is a great place to relax or entertain while looking out over reserve and bush land. There is a separate laundry and a big single lock up garage.

The block is a good size with an extra parking bay for a second van or boat, plus there is room to build a shed if required. The gardens are beautifully set out with established flowering
