Externally, the property includes an original separate garage/shed and plenty of room for the trampoline and swing set. A secure yard can be easily created and would allow plenty of room for the beloved family dog or kids to run around in. Adults are catered for too with the addition of a private, dual level entertaining deck at the rear.

Investors should note there is a very real potential rental return of approximately $360 per week, an enviable yield in this price bracket. An ideal starter for those looking to get into the North Coast property market or a low maintenance addition to any portfolio.
